CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

In last year's annual report, I have promised that we as the industry leader would take up our undeniable responsibilities. In the midst of transformation of large scale tutorial houses which coincides with major social events and global epidemic, the Education Bureau announced a prolonged suspension of classes for more than 180 days. As I am penning this statement, the Secretary publicly advised all educational institutions to be prepared for another class suspension at any time. We shall hold fast to our position and endure to innovate new opportunities.

Under the duo impact of social events and epidemic, the Group recorded its largest decline in revenue and session enrollment. During the offline class suspension, we responded quickly and successfully converted all face-to-face classes to online classes within the first week of class suspension. As of 31 July 2020, we completed over 650,000 teaching hours, and served over 30,000 unique students via online services provided by the Group, including completion of enrollment procedures and lessons through our online student services platform.

The prolonged suspension of classes has created development opportunities for the online education industry, with course administrators of all sizes competing for market share thereof. However, the number of educators who can persevere with fortitude under the local epidemic and economic uncertainties is questionable. Among the numerous paths to success, the ones that are favourable to the Group in developing high quality online education services in the long run are summarized as follows:

- To gather high quality content providers, ranging from reputable industry leaders to excelling new teachers. Meanwhile, we will invest in the discovery of hidden talents, from experienced retirees to knowledgeable academics who have yet to graduate, to provide diversified courses including but not limited to primary and secondary subjects as well as parental educational courses.
- 2. To achieve "Micro-learning (微學習)" via systematic fragmentation and step-by-step integration of contents. E-learning requires concentration against distraction, and the duration of students' concentration online is shorter than offline, so each episode of self-directed pre-recorded lessons should be no longer than 10 minutes. Lessons that were taught by a single teacher can now be divided among three to four instructors with different strengths to focus on different chapters of the class to leverage on their expertise.
- 3. To establish the system and mechanism of validating learning progress and awarding recognized qualifications of course completion. Nowadays, given the rapid development in education and information technologies that give rise to rapid transferral and dissemination of knowledge through the Internet, qualifications recognition does not necessarily come from traditional authoritative academic institutions; universities and official institutions are no longer the only organizations awarding certificates and diplomas, whereas attentions are now focused on an open and fair system with rigorous validation supported by scientific analysis. In this regard, Assessment International under the Group, led by an authority figure in exam assessment Dr. Luo Guanzhong, is well placed in specializing in data analysis and parameter estimation. The data collected shall become the authoritative credential for the education industry in the future.
- 4. Hong Kong is a small market with a dense population. It is unsustainable to provide online courses without offline support. Providing online and offline integrated learning is the Group's guiding principle in the development of quality education services, while physical premises remain an essential investment.
- Based on the pros and cons of real-time and pre-recorded courses, it would be ideal if both kinds of lessons could be offered interchangeably. However, the latter seems to enjoy more potential as it offers autonomy and flexibility for the busy learners in Hong Kong.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

The Group's permanent information technology base for the research and development of all-rounded education technology and support services will soon commence operations. The base will allow the Group to step forward in the development of its digital learning business and expand the scope of its education services beyond supplementary education services in private secondary schools, including but not limited to education and related services, such as professional qualifications, interest learning and personal development examination preparation courses for the youth and adults both inside and outside Hong Kong.

In July this year, the Group completed the acquisition of PhD Online Limited which has now become a subsidiary of the Group. It is formerly wholly and beneficially owned by Dr. Lam Yat Ming, and has been principally engaged in the operation of the PhD Online Platform. PhD Online Platform has already possessed all necessary conditions to allow the Group to expand its online education and learning business beyond the secondary school market, including professional qualification examination related courses, machine learning, e-learning and assessment tools, bringing a wider source of revenue to the Group's educational services.

Furthermore, in my speeches on several public occasions and my published articles in newspaper columns, I have repeatedly stressed that the HKDSE has the objective advantage of breaking away from Hong Kong to go forward into the world, and now the environment is maturing in the interests of all stakeholders. As the more people sit for a public examination, the higher its international recognition will be. The HKDSE, which adopts the Standards-referenced Reporting, has lifetime validity and is widely recognized by more than 280 prestigious institutions worldwide. We believe that if the HKDSE is promoted in areas outside Hong Kong successfully in the future, the qualification shall become one of the most widely applied and effective admissions reference tools for overseas universities, which would benefit our local students in Hong Kong. The Group is well positioned to complement the development of the HKDSE business in other markets outside Hong Kong in this regard. Leveraging on the Group's 30 years of experience in offering a full range of secondary day school programs, we are able to export HKDSE-related education services outside Hong Kong. The resources, experience and data of the Group are undoubtedly the most comprehensive among the private education organizers in Hong Kong and even in the world. This is also the future direction of the Group's aggressive expansion.

Despite the decline in demand for offline tutorials from large-scaled local chains, we are confident and determined to readjust the core of our business development to build a more comprehensive education industry chain, and the business figures of the Group also reflect the steady growth of our non-secondary tutorial businesses, such as IT services, overseas exams preparation and study consultation services.

Our Group also recognizes the potential of artificial intelligence in education, and will therefore actively conduct research and development in collaboration with local, domestic and overseas partners in this regard. We will also utilize our existing database to strengthen and enhance our online and offline services, not only to meet the needs of the local market, but also to identify partners outside Hong Kong.

Knowledge can change destiny while love and conviction can settle disputes. When society is in turmoil, the epidemic is rampant and the political and economic environment unpredictable, the responsibility of educators is even more prominent. In times of difficulty, we need to hold fast to our position now more than ever.

We are grateful to the students, parents, teachers and tutors, as well as other stakeholders for their support and trust all the way.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Introduction

Our Group is a leading provider of private supplementary secondary school education services in Hong Kong. We principally engage in the provision of private supplementary secondary school education services and the operation of private secondary day schools in Hong Kong. We also offer ancillary education services and products targeted at pre-school, kindergarten, primary and secondary school students and individuals pursuing further education/other interest learning and/or personal development. We provide all of our private supplementary education services from teaching centres on Hong Kong Island, in Kowloon and the New Territories. As at 31 July 2020, we operated 17 teaching centres, with a total of 131 classrooms, which, in accordance with the EDB's guidelines, allow a maximum classroom capacity of 3,419 students to attend class at any one time.

It has been a challenging year for the Group since the social unrest in Hong Kong in the latter half of 2019, followed by the outbreak of Coronavirus Disease 2019 ("COVID-19") in January 2020. Our Group's principal business of education services, which relies heavily on offline teaching services delivery in our teaching centres across Hong Kong, has inevitably suffered in both incidents. We experienced business disruption and class suspension.

Despite facing unprecedented challenges and uncertainties, the Group has quickly formulated strategies and implemented countermeasures to cope with the adverse changes in environment. Online teaching platforms are launched and related supporting services for students are provided.

However, due to the unfavourable factors and impact, the Group's financial performance was inevitably affected. The Group recorded revenue of approximately HK$287.0 million, representing a decrease of approximately 22.8% as compared with approximately HK$371.7 million for the year ended 31 July 2019. The Group recorded a loss for the year ended 31 July 2020 of approximately HK$19.8 million while a profit of approximately HK$10.5 million for the year ended 31 July 2019.

Revenue

We offer a range of education programmes and services in Hong Kong under the following three categories:

- i) private supplementary secondary school education services;
- ii) private secondary day school services; and
- iii) ancillary education services and products.

Set out below is a summary of our revenue and session enrollments for each category of services which we provided for each of the years ended 31 July 2020 and 2019:

	For the year ended 31 July
	2020	2019
Private supplementary secondary school education services
– Revenue (HK$'000)	239,987	317,696
– Unique student enrollment ('000)	35	50
– Session enrollment ('000)	405	546
Private secondary day school services
– Revenue (HK$'000)	10,221	11,207
– Unique student enrollment ('000)	0.4	0.4
– Session enrollment ('000)	3.0	3.0
Ancillary education services and products
– Revenue (HK$'000)	36,828	42,825
- Session enrollment ('000)	30	36

i) Private supplementary secondary school education services

Our Group provides private supplementary secondary school education services for students from Secondary 1 to Secondary 6 under our "Beacon College" (遵理學校) brand. For the year ended 31 July 2020, we had (i) approximately 35,000 (2019: approximately 50,000) unique private supplementary secondary school education student enrollments and approximately 405,000 (2019: approximately 546,000) private supplementary secondary school education session enrollments.

The following table sets forth the gross revenue, the number of session enrollments of each category and the average course fee of private supplementary secondary school education services for each of the years ended 31 July 2020 and 2019:

		For the year end	ed 31 July
	2020		2019
	Session		Session
	enrollment	Revenue	enrollment	Revenue
	′000	HK$'000	'000	HK$'000
Regular courses	279	185,097	404	254,071
Intensive courses	61	28,950	70	30,054
Summer courses	65	25,940	72	33,571
Total	405	239,987	546	317,696
Average course fees per session
enrollment (HK$)	_	593		582

Our Group's total revenue declined by approximately 22.8% when compared with the same period in the previous financial year which was mainly due to the decline in session enrollments as experienced in the private supplementary secondary school industry.

In spite of suffering from the social unrest in the second half of 2019 and class suspension for at least five months under the suspension order by the EDB caused by the COVID-19 outbreak at the beginning of 2020, our Group has invested in the enhancement of the Group's information infrastructure, online learning platform and digital payment gateways aiming to strengthen the Group's education services, particularly in achieving an effective online to offline integrated learning mode, bettering students' learning experience and intensifying the Group's measurement and assessment on students' learning progress. Through upgrading the Group's information infrastructure, the Group believes that the extensive experience in IT can allow better retention of existing students and a higher number of new enrollments.

ii) Private secondary day school services

We operated two private secondary day schools located in Yuen Long and Mong Kok under our "Beacon Day School" (遵理 日校) brand. The number of private secondary day school session enrollments decreased by approximately 7.0% during the year ended 31 July 2020 and resulted in a decrease in revenue arising from private secondary day school services. There was no significant change in school fee in the past two financial years. Nevertheless, we continue to integrate resources across different brands within our Group such as GES, Beacon BExcellent and Beacon College to create more values and opportunities to our day school students who, for example, are interested to study abroad.

iii) Ancillary education services and products

Our Group offers various ancillary education services and products such as (i) mock examination services; (ii) interview preparation, language and supplementary primary school education, tutorial and consultation services under our "Diverse Learning Club", "Beacon Childhood", "BeConfident", "Glocal Education", "Mathgic" brands; (iii) VIP self-study services; (iv) IELTS, general interest and foreign language courses under our "Beacon BExcellent" brand; (v) other services and products including but not limited to online course scheduling and management services, a Higher National Diploma in Business (QCF) registered with the EDB under our "Beacon CAPE" brand, other educational services under our "Ascent Prep" brand, overseas study consultation services fees from another private supplementary secondary school education service provider pursuant to a collaboration arrangement. The table below shows the revenue components of the ancillary education services and products for each of the years ended 31 July 2020 and 2019:

	For the year ended 31 July
	2020	2019
	HK$'000	HK$'000
Mock examination services	11,453	11,633
Childhood education services	5,873	11,204
VIP self-study services	3,746	6,853
Beacon BExcellent	7,294	2,660
Others	8,462	10,475
Total	36,828	42,825

Mock examination services are one of the largest revenue contributors of our ancillary education services and products. The revenue from such services maintained at a level of approximately HK$11.5 million when compared with the same period in the previous financial year. All these services were conducted in late 2019 or early 2020 which were less affected by the epidemic.

Beacon BExcellent has been growing rapidly among all components of the ancillary education services and products for the year ended 31 July 2020. It offered preparation courses for IELTS, general interest and foreign language courses, which has translated into a significant revenue growth by 174.2% for the year ended 31 July 2020 and the major part of revenue is mainly contributed from IELTS courses.

The increase in subsidy ceiling from the level of HK$10,000 to HK$20,000 per applicant for studying eligible courses under the Continuing Education Fund became effective on 1 April 2019, resulting in an increase in demand for eligible continuing education and training programs, such as the Group's IELTS preparation course. The Group proactively diversified its marketing strategy in promotion to attract more students and enhanced their support by strengthening the academic support team with more tutors and student mentoring services, thus elevating students' learning experience. Therefore, the increase in session enrollments resulted in a substantial increase in the revenue of Beacon BExcellent.

On the other hand, Childhood education services recorded a significant decline in revenue by HK$5.3 million, or 47.6% from HK$11.2 million for year ended 31 July 2019 to HK$5.9 million for year ended 31 July 2020. Moreover, our VIP self-study services also recorded a significant decline in revenue by HK$3.1 million, or 45.3% from HK$6.9 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to HK$3.7 million for the year ended 31 July 2020. Such significant declines were attributable to the decrease in the number of session enrollments mainly caused by (i) the suspension of classes for at least five months under suspensive order by EDB as a result of the outbreak of COVID-19, (ii) social events in the second half year of 2019.

In view of the market demand for the continuing education programs, the Group will continue to capture market share by increasing course variety and expanding our service offerings.

OUTLOOK AND FUTURE DEVELOPMENT

The Group has been undergoing a tough year with challenging business environment followed by prolonged offline class suspension during the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic and social unrest in Hong Kong.

Despite the fact that the enduring class disruption poses unforeseen challenges to the education industry, the Group has taken swift steps to direct our ordinary offline teaching and learning services to take place online. The ripple of the COVID-19 pandemic has undeniably brought a rapid change in the learning behavior of the young generation, leading the education industry to a VUCA (volatile, uncertainty, complexity, and ambiguity) environment. The rise of microlearning with characteristics of being instant, flexible, self-directed and boundary-less catalyzes and accelerates the Group's planned development of an integrated mode of online-offline learning utilizing education information technology and extension of its online education services to students outside Hong Kong without the confinement of geographical boundaries.

Following the upcoming operation of the Group's permanent information technology base in the Group's acquired property, the Group is ready to step up for higher quality online education platforms, a further streamlined digital service delivery pipeline with upgraded IT infrastructures and our enlarged IT team of workforce.

The Group will continue to act proactively with the strategies of consolidation, differentiation and diversification. The Group's diversification and comprehensive education services spectrum remains a strong competitive edge; the expansion of international test preparation and overseas study consultancy, as well as childhood education services, forms the crucial layout of the Group's complete education product pipeline of different stages in addition to the supplemental secondary school education services. The Group will be optimistically mindful and continue to explore expansion opportunities through, amongst others, acquisition and collaboration.

The effect of the pandemic and potential social unrest may be continuing for a longer period of time. The Group will stay vigilant in managing costs, particularly seek for more efficient utilisation of teaching centre network with more preferential rent and terms, and maintain a prudent and sustainable approach to business.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

For the components of our revenue, please refer to the section headed "Business Review" above.

The Group's total revenue decreased by approximately HK$84.7 million, or approximately 22.8%, from approximately HK$371.7 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to approximately HK$287.0 million for the year ended 31 July 2020. This was mainly due to the revenue decline from provision of private supplementary secondary school education services and ancillary education services and products.

Revenue from provision of private supplementary secondary school education services decreased by approximately HK$77.7 million, or approximately 24.5% from approximately HK$317.7 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to approximately HK$240.0 million for the year ended 31 July 2020, which was largely due to the class suspension and the decrease in number of the Group's session enrollments by approximately 141,000 or approximately 25.8% from approximately 546,000 for the year ended 31 July 2019 to approximately 405,000 for the year ended 31 July 2020.

Revenue from the provision of the ancillary education services and products decreased by approximately HK$6.0 million, or approximately 14.0% from approximately HK$42.8 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to approximately HK$36.8 million for the year ended 31 July 2020. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decrease in revenue arising from childhood education services, VIP self-study services partially offset by the revenue growth in Beacon BExcellent.

As a result of the class suspension and business disruption brought by the COVID-19 and social unrest, the revenue from VIP self-study services for the year ended 31 July 2020 decreased by approximately HK$3.1 million or approximately 45.3% from approximately HK$6.9 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to approximately HK$3.7 million for the year ended 31 July 2020 and the revenue from childhood education services also dropped significantly by approximately HK$5.3 million, or 47.6% from HK$11.2 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to HK$5.9 million for the year ended 31 July 2020.

Revenue from mock examination services was able to maintain at a level of approximately HK$11.5 million when compared with the period in the previous financial year while revenue from Beacon BExcellent increased by HK$4.6 million or 174.2% from HK$ 2.7 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to HK$7.3 million for the year ended 31 July 2020.

Other income

Other income primarily consists of government subsidies, advertising income, IT service income, rental income from an investment property, interest income from bank deposits and dividend income from an unlisted investment. Other income increased by 160.0% from HK$5.3 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to HK$13.8 million for the year ended 31 July 2020. This increase was primarily attributable to the "Anti-epidemic Fund" received from the government of approximately HK$7.5 million and IT service income from Vioo Company Limited, a subsidiary of the Group.

Major costs component

The summary below shows the major costs components of our Group among which approximately 58.2% (2019: approximately 58.9%) is related to labour costs (comprising staff costs and tutor service fees) followed by printing and other operating expenses, depreciation of right-of-use ("ROU"), lease payments, and advertising and promotion expenses:

	2020 HK$′000	% of revenue	2019 HK$'000	% of revenue
Staff costs	97,939	34.1	103,695	27.9
Tutor service fees	79,575	27.7	105,257	28.3
Depreciation of ROU	38,334	13.4	_	_
Short-term lease and low-value lease payments/
operating lease payments	11,052	3.9	56,322	15.2
Advertising and promotion expenses	8,244	2.9	16,890	4.5
Printing and other operating expenses	69,943	24.4	72,037	19.4

Staff costs

As at 31 July 2020, the Group has 369 full-time employees and maintains a pool of part-time employees, in which 288 are active ones.

Staff costs mainly consist of (i) salaries, allowances and bonus; (ii) pension costs and (iii) share-based payment incurred for our employees.

The staff costs slightly decreased by approximately HK$5.8 million or approximately 5.6% from approximately HK$103.7 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to approximately HK$97.9 million for the year ended 31 July 2020. Such decrease was mainly attributable to the net effect of (i) decrease in extra staff cost arising from over time payments and part time labour in relation to centre operations under class suspension and (ii) the increase in general staff benefit as well as recruitment of more staff to cope with the expansion and development of the new business.

Tutor service fees

Tutor service fees include service agreements and share-based payments. Typically we offer a revenue sharing scheme to our tutors and thus the tutor service fee is in general positively correlated to our Group's revenue. Such expense decreased from approximately HK$105.3 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to approximately HK$79.6 million for the year ended 31 July 2020. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decrease in revenue from provision of private supplementary secondary school education services.

Depreciation of ROU assets, short-term leases, and low-value lease payments

As a result of the adoption of the new accounting policy – HKFRS 16 "Leases", lease expenses in the consolidated income statement have been reflected by depreciation of ROU assets and related finance cost starting from 1 August 2019. Depreciation of ROU assets and lease payments are part of the largest components of the Group's operating costs, accounting for 13.4% and 3.9% respectively (2019: nil and 15.2%) of the Group's total revenue. The Group will continue to closely monitor the property rental market, negotiate with landlords for a lease adjustment, strive to seek for rental concessions and review the leased centres' performance by evaluating the occupancy rate of each centre before considering tenancy renewal thereof. In view of the centre network optimization, during the year ended 31 July 2020, the Group had closed five centres in Tsim Sha Tsui, Kowloon Bay, North Point, and Tsuen Wan and opened a new centre in Kowloon Bay.

Advertising and promotion expenses

Advertising and promotion expenses consist of media advertising costs including but not limited to advertising on newspapers and magazines, outdoor billboards, public transit vehicles, mobile applications and third party websites. Due to the effective cost management measures adopted by the Group, such as adopting effective online marketing strategies and shifting its marketing spending mainly onto social media platforms, such as Facebook, Instagram and Google instead of traditional channels, the Group enhances the promotion of education services and its brand awareness in a more effective and efficient way. For the year ended 31 July 2020, the marketing expenditure for the Group further decreased by approximately HK$8.6 million or 51.2% from HK$16.9 million to HK$8.2 million.

Printing and other operating expenses

Printing and other operating expenses primarily consist of the printing expenses, building management fees, service fees to freelancers, legal and professional fees, utilities and other administrative expenses. These expenses decreased by HK$2.1 million or 2.9% from HK$72.0 million for the year ended 31 July 2019 to HK$69.9 million for the year ended 31 July 2020. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decrease in printing expenses in relation to the private supplementary secondary school education services, such expenses dropped by 27.4% to HK$18.6 million, partially offset by the increase in IT related expenses, such as server fees, hardware costs, service fees payable to various electronic payment solution providers for the purpose of online course enrollment and delivery during the second half of the year, especially when our centres were closed due to class suspension. Moreover, the Group incurred over HK$1.7 million in purchasing epidemic prevention materials, as well as cleaning and sanitary materials in order to support our students and staff to fight against the epidemic.

Income tax credit

Income tax credit for the year ended 31 July 2020 was HK2.4 million (Income tax expenses for the year ended 31 July 2019: HK1.9 million). The effective tax rates of the Group for the year ended 31 July 2020 and 2019 were 10.7% and 15.2% respectively.

Loss for the year

The Group recorded a loss of HK$19.8 million for the year ended 31 July 2020. The loss during the year was mainly due to the decrease of income and a provision for impairment of an investment property. (2019: Profit of the year of the Group was HK$10.5 million).

Liquidity, financial resources and capital structure

As at 31 July 2020, the Group's net current asset value was HK$68.4 million, which mainly consisted of accounts receivables, prepayments, deposits and other receivables and cash and cash equivalents less other payables, contract liabilities, current income tax payable, borrowings and lease liabilities. The Group's current assets decreased from HK$181.3 million as at 31 July 2019 to HK$144.4 million as at 31 July 2020. Such decrease in current assets was primarily due to the decrease in cash and cash equivalents from HK$145.9 million as at 31 July 2019 to HK$121.3 million as at 31 July 2020, around HK$31.6 million of current lease liabilities out of the net current assets of HK$68.4 million (31 July 2019: net current assets of HK$123.1 million) arose from the adoption of HKFRS16. As at 31 July 2020, the current ratio of the Group (expressed as current assets divided by current liabilities) was 1.90, compared with 3.11 as at 31 July 2019.

Charges on the Group's Assets

The Group has investment property with carrying value of approximately HK$19.3 million pledged to secure borrowings and general banking facilities granted to the Group. There was no charge on the Group's other assets.

Gearing ratio

As at 31 July 2020, the Group's gearing ratio (calculated based on bank borrowings amounting to approximately HK$8.1 million and lease liabilities amounting to approximately HK$46.4 million divided by equity attributable to the owners of the Company as at the year-end date amounting to approximately HK$157.7 million) was approximately 34.5% (31 July 2019: 4.5%).

Contingent liabilities

The Group did not have any material contingent liabilities as at 31 July 2020 (2019: nil), other than the on-going litigation disclosed in the section headed "Litigation" under "Directors' Report" in this annual report.

Dividends

The Board has resolved to recommend the payment of a final dividend of HK1.0 cent per Share for the year ended 31 July 2020 (2019: HK1.0 cent per Share and a special dividend of HK2.0 cents per Share).

Acquisition and disposal of subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures

There was no material acquisition or disposal of subsidiaries, associates or joint ventures during the year ended 31 July 2020.

USE OF NET PROCEEDS FROM THE LISTING

provided that any such adjustments shall be made such that the proportion of the issued share capital of our Company to which an option entitles the Grantee to subscribe after such adjustment must be the same as that to which the option entitled the Grantee to subscribe immediately before such adjustment, but so that no such adjustment shall be made to the extent that the effect of such adjustment would be to enable any Share to be issued at less than its nominal value. In respect of any adjustment required by the foregoing provisions, other than any adjustment made on a capitalisation issue, an independent financial adviser or the auditor for the time being of our Company must also confirm to the Board in writing that the adjustments satisfy the foregoing provisions and fairly and reasonably satisfy the requirement that any such adjustment shall be made in compliance with the provisions stipulated under the Listing Rules or such other guidelines and supplementary guidance on the interpretation of the Listing Rules issued or as may be issued by the Stock Exchange from time to time.

INTRODUCTION & APPROACH TO ESG AND REPORTING

The Group is a leading provider of private supplementary secondary school education services through a network of 17 teaching centres in Hong Kong.

For the year ended 31 July 2020, the Group had approximately (i) 35,000 unique private supplementary secondary school education student enrollments; (ii) 400 unique private secondary day school student enrollments; (iii) 30,000 enrollments/registrations in our private ancillary education services and products. All teaching delivery is managed by a professional team of 279 individuals, comprising tutors, day school teachers, full-time and part-time teaching assistants.

As a prominent force in the private supplementary education services in Hong Kong, the Group recognizes the significance of potential impacts our business could make on the lives of students and staff, and society. We also see the opportunities of being a role model and educating our students and staff by acting responsibly and committing to the wellness of the environment and the public.

For the year ended 31 July 2020, one of the Group's subsidiaries, Beacon College, was awarded the "10 Year Plus Caring Company Logo" by The Hong Kong Council of Social Services for inspiring corporate social responsibility through caring for the community, the employees, and the environment for over ten consecutive years (from 2008 to 2020).

The Group has set up a task force for better coordinating the reporting issues, which comprises the senior management, including, Deputy Chief Executive Officer/Chief Finance Officer, Senior Manager, Manager and Assistant Manager.

Reporting Period and Scope

This Environment, Social and Governance Report ("ESG Report") issued by the Group summarizes the Group's material policies and practices, as well as compliance status in the areas of environment protection, sustainable development, and social responsibility.

It has been prepared by the Company for the financial year ended 31 July 2020 ("Reporting Period") in compliance with the requirements of the Environmental, Social and Governance Reporting Guide set out in Appendix 27 to the Listing Rules.

This ESG Report focuses primarily on the Group's private supplementary secondary school education services in Hong Kong. During the Reporting Period, the Group offered a wide range of education programmes and services under the following three categories:

- Private supplementary secondary school education services (accounting for approximately 83.6% of the total revenue of the Group), which are offered to students from Secondary 1 to Secondary 6;
- Private secondary day school services (accounting for approximately 3.6% of the total revenue of the Group), which are provided to Secondary 4, 5 and 6 level students in accordance with the HKDSE curriculum; and
- Ancillary education services and products (accounting for approximately 12.8% of the total revenue of the Group), which target at pre-school, kindergarten, primary and secondary school students and individuals pursuing further education/other interest learning and/or personal development.

Materiality Assessment

We have identified the ESG issues that matter most to our stakeholders based on the feedback from a series of discussions among the Directors, key management members, employees and external parties. Our Directors believe that it is of paramount importance to keep the environment, social, and governance aspects in mind while operating and growing our business going forward. This business philosophy has helped us build a sustainable business model and enhanced our reputation which, together with other factors, can differentiate our brands from those of the competitors in the supplementary secondary school education services industry. In order to more accurately assess the materiality of ESG issues, telephone interviews were conducted with the two major stakeholders, namely teachers and students. They share the same viewpoint that the social aspects are of more importance than the environmental aspects. Product responsibility and governance are generally treated as the most important ones.

We welcome comments and suggestions from our stakeholders. If you have any questions or comments on this ESG Report, please contact us by email at ir@beacon.com.hk.

A: ENVIRONMENT

After reviewing the nature of business and operation in providing private supplementary education services, our Directors and the Group's external environment consultant share the view that the risk of our business causing significant, undesirable impacts on the environment is relatively low. However, we are well aware of the fact that, regardless of our minimal environmental footprint as an education service provider, our business operation inevitably generates a small amount of carbon emissions and solid wastes discharged into the environment, as well as consumes certain natural resources.

A1: EMISSIONS

A key part of the Group's environmental policy is to monitor the carbon emission and the volume of wastes generated from the operation.

Our business offers education services, which typically do not generate air pollutants or greenhouse gas emissions or regulated discharges from the operation. In our operation, the emissions are limited to the use of company vehicles, whereas discharges are limited to the usual sewage from an office setting. As a result, the amount of air emissions and water discharges are minimised.

However, associated with the amount of printing activity for teaching purposes, paper wastes are generated in the normal course of our business operation. Daily use of printers and photocopiers would result in regular replacement of cartridges and ink toners, disposal of which would generate wastes containing chemical residuals that requires special handling. Other non-hazardous wastes generated from the operation include aging equipment and electronics used in the teaching centres and the head office, as well as daily consumables, such as office stationery and teaching aids, etc. We are not aware of any hazardous wastes generated from our operation.

The Group's policy in this aspect goes by the principle of "Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle" to the extent that is practical and cost effective.

- REDUCE: We keep our motor vehicles in regular maintenance and examination so that they are operated in good condition with gas emissions below the regulated thresholds. Equipment and electronics are maintained as scheduled and repaired as needed to extend their lifespans which would reduce the need for replacement and disposal. Reminders are placed around printers and photocopies to alert employees and teaching staff to avoid excessive printing that generates unnecessary paper wastes.
- REUSE: Rather than replacing the depleted cartridges and ink toners, refillers are used to minimize the wastes of cartridge or toner casings. Some of the office stationery (e.g. binders, folders, etc.) are often reused if possible, rather than immediately disposed of after one-time usage.
- RECYCLE: Wastes for disposal are first separated into "non-recyclable" and "recyclable" categories, and "special care" category. Recyclable wastes are further collected separately by nature, namely (i) waste papers, (ii) plastics, and (iii) metals. They are then handled accordingly for recycling or proper disposal to minimize environment impacts. "Special care" items, like cartridges and ink toners, are returned to suppliers/manufacturers for professional handling.

The Group does not foresee any material change in the nature of its business activities and its operation does not materially generate air pollutants, gas emissions and regulated discharges. As such, the Air Pollution Control Ordinance (Cap. 311) and Water Pollution Control Ordinance (Cap. 358), as well as their and associated regulations are considered less relevant to our operation. Our Directors were pleased to confirm that the Group was in full compliance with the provisions related to motor vehicle emissions under the Road Traffic Ordinance (Cap. 374). No fines or penalties were levied by the Government because of air emissions or water discharges during the Reporting Period.

The Group also follows the general provisions of the Waste Disposal Ordinance (Cap. 354), which prohibits dumping wastes in public places or on private premises without the consent of the owner or occupier. Our Directors confirmed that the Group and its teaching centres were in full compliance with the general provisions of this law that apply to the entire operation during the Reporting Period. We are not aware of any fines or penalties levied by the Government for improper waste handling or disposal.

Air emissions

The air emissions were mainly from vehicles and the figures below are based on our internal estimation of the kilometers travelled. In general, we managed to lower the total air emissions by reducing use of vehicles.

	NO _x	SO _x	PM
	Nitrogen oxides	Sulphur oxides	Particulate Matter
For the year ended 31 July 2019	20,976 g	413 g	1,545 g
For the year ended 31 July 2020	20,501 g	403 g	1,509 g

Greenhouse gas emissions

Scope 1 emissions were mainly from vehicles and the figures below are based on our internal estimation of the kilometers travelled. In general, we managed to lower the total Scope 1 emissions by reducing use of vehicles.

CO ₂ equivalent emissions	CO ₂	CH₄	N ₂ O
	Carbon dioxide	Methane	Nitrous oxide
For the year ended 31 July 2019	66.269 tonnes	0.149 tonnes	9.618 tonnes
For the year ended 31 July 2020	64.768 tonnes	0.146 tonnes	9.401 tonnes

For Scope 2 energy indirect emissions, the CO_2 equivalent emissions mainly from purchased electricity were approximately 788.678 tonnes (2019: 953.328 tonnes). The total greenhouse gas emissions (Scope 1 and Scope 2) were approximately 863 tonnes (2019: approximately 1,029 tonnes). We do not report Scope 3 emissions because of the lack of complete and accurate data.

Total Greenhouse Gas Emission: Approx. 863 tonnes

Non-hazardous solid wastes, mainly the domestic and commercial wastes, generated from our offices in Hong Kong during our operations in the Reporting Period amounted to 3.41 tonnes (non-hazardous waste) (2019: approximately 11.29 tonnes) which was greatly improved mainly due to fewer centres and the suspension of operations during social incidents and the pandemics. We will continue to pay effort to minimize the wastes.

Hazardous wastes of batteries and toners were recorded at approximately 0.180 tonnes (2019: approximately 0.131 tonnes) and 0.113 tonnes (2019: approximately 0.180 tonnes) respectively. All the toners were disposed to recycling companies.

A2: USE OF RESOURCES

Part of the Group's ESG strategy is to make efficient use of resources and leverage eco-friendly alternatives, where practically and economically feasible, in the business operation. Generally, provision of education services does not consume significant amount of resources as compared to that of other commercial or industrial operations. Yet, we have identified and targeted energy consumption and paper usage as two key areas where our ESG initiatives can achieve the biggest total impact on the environment in our business operation.

• Energy Consumption

We recognize our carbon footprint arising from our business operations primarily attributed to energy consumption, even though it is relatively insignificant as compared to other commercial or industrial operations. Our 17 teaching centres and the head office have relatively long operating hours, in which lighting, ventilation, air-conditioning, teaching and office equipment are powered by electricity, generation of which by conventional power plants often emits carbon dioxide during the process.

The goal of our policy in energy saving is to minimize unnecessary waste of electricity. This involves creating awareness by issuing company memos and setting up reminders to achieve behavioral changes of our employees and teaching staff in the use of electricity. Specific measures include switching off idle equipment, lighting, and air-conditioning that are not in use and after work as well as the setup of various light zones to maximize the utilization of lighting. The Group has also increasingly invested in energy efficient alternatives, such as LED or energy-efficient lighting, equipment with energy-saving mode and timer control function, etc. Maintenance and cleaning of equipment are regularly performed to optimize equipment performance and energy efficiency.

Paper Usage

Paper is often used in the course of teaching and marketing, and as a form of keeping administrative records in the normal course of our business. Our teaching classes are supplemented by lesson handouts and study materials, which are paperbased. Part of our advertising and marketing campaigns involve production of brochures, leaflets, and direct-mailing materials. Moreover, administrative paper work inevitably exists in the teaching centres and the head office.

"Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle" is our strategy to address the issue of paper usage. In light of the extensive adoption of technology by the young generation, the Group has increasingly shifted from distributing paper-based study materials to leveraging digital technology for delivery of teaching content. This helps significantly reduce in paper consumption in our teaching centres. The Group continues to upgrade computer systems to minimize manual, paper-based tasks in different streams of work flows.

During the Reporting Period, we have a substantial increase in online education services due to class suspension and we have distributed notes electronically to students for these online classes, which help to minimize the paper usage. In addition, the extensive utilization of online enrolment system and online teaching mode further reduced the use of paper by the paperless operations. We also encourage using emails for communication and using online platforms for broadcasting messages or dissemination of information to minimize paper consumption. Other best practices include double-sided printing and printing-to-exact-quantity, reusing paper from the recycling bins, replacing disposable cups with reusable ones in our office, paperless administrative systems for handling expense claims, managing annual leaves, and circulating agendas of weekly meetings, etc.

• Water and Electricity Usage

In our business operation, water consumption is limited to drinking and cleaning uses, and packaging materials are modestly used. In view of the purpose for which water is used, there is no issue in sourcing water that is fit for purpose. Consumption of water and packaging materials are thus considered immaterial from our standpoint. In order to increase the awareness of environmental protection, we encourage employees to use their personal utensils for drinks and meals so as to minimize the use of disposables.

		For the year ended 31 July
		2020	2019
Use of resources	Unit	(approx.)	(approx.)
Electricity	kWh	1,249,748	1,425,678
Electricity intensity	kWh per million HK$ revenue	4,354	3,836
Water	Cubic meter	294	551
Water intensity	Cubic meter per million HK$ revenue	1.02	1.48

Since the Group is engaged in the service industry, the traceable packaging materials are mainly paper used in gift premiums. The Group continues to maintain a total elimination of all the use of plastic packaging materials in current year.

	Paper	Plastic

A3: THE ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Our policy on environment protection centres around the principle of "Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle". To achieve the desired results of minimizing impacts on the environment, we must begin with regular monitoring and communication which are critical to raising awareness and changing pre-existing mindsets and behaviors of our employees and stakeholders in this aspect. To prioritize our efforts, we target key areas (namely energy consumption, paper usage, and waste generation) where our initiatives could have the most impact. As discussed above, we not only educate our employees and share best practices in making efficient use of energy and paper resources, but also invest in and encourage the use of new technology and eco-friendly equipment that can minimize wastes and consumption of resources in the operation.

Our goal is more than simply achieving compliance with the relevant laws and regulations. We also aim to promote environment protection and efficient use of natural resources to our next generations by being a good role model in this subject matter.

B: SOCIAL

Our reputable brand, people-oriented principle and high teaching quality are our key differentiators in the private supplementary education services industry. We are committed to high standards of teaching, and believe that this commitment has contributed to the success of our business and the development of our brand.

Working together as a team, our teaching staff and non-teaching employees enable the Group to provide lessons and support, course planning and development, course material development and publication, course management as well as advertising, marketing and media promotion in order to serve our students and promote our brand. As at 31 July 2020, the Group had 369 full-time employees and maintain a pool of part-time employees, in which 288 are active ones, helping to make our success happen.

Having a high-quality teaching team is a key factor to succeed in our industry. Our teaching professionals are the ones who deliver high-quality teaching to the students and represent our brand from the front line. Our teaching team was made up of 279 individuals, comprising 76 tutors, 8 day school teachers, 67 full-time and 128 part-time teaching assistants. They worked diligently and taught responsibly to serve a sizable group of students which made a total of approximately 438,000 session enrollments for our courses and services during the Reporting Period.

Apart from expressing gratitude to our entire staff, we are dedicated to being a good employer that cares for all of our employees. Furthermore, in return for the trust given to us by the students and parents, we dedicate ourselves to providing high-quality teaching and education services to our customers so that they can have an enhanced learning experience.

B1: EMPLOYMENT

Our Directors believe that success in hiring, training and retaining experienced teaching staff and employees is critical to providing reliable and high-quality education services in our business.

We strive to adopt a stringent recruitment process that allows us to engage and develop qualified teaching and non-teaching staff. Our selection criteria include required academic qualifications, personality, experience and skills. In addition, we perform background checks and use interviews and demonstration classes (for teaching staff) to determine an applicant's suitability prior to making recruitment decision.

The Group has developed an Employee Handbook with reference to the Employment Ordinance (Cap. 57) in Hong Kong. It contains our human resources policy that covers various matters related to wages and compensation, rest days and other types of leaves, termination of employment, other benefits and welfare, etc. The Group offers 14-week maternity leave, which is longer then the statutory 10-week maternity leave.

We offer competitive remuneration and benefits, with reference to the market conditions, individual responsibilities, performance and qualifications. All of our tutors are engaged either under (full-time or part-time) employment contracts or service agreements, and they are typically remunerated on revenue sharing scheme so as to create a strong incentive for tutors to develop and deliver highquality teaching services. The Group has also joined a Mandatory Provident Fund retirement benefit scheme in accordance with the arrangements prescribed by the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes (Cap. 485). In addition, our employee benefits include weekend and holiday bonus for frontline staff, 5-day full-pay paternity leaves, etc.

The Group is an equal opportunity employer, hiring people based on their abilities, aptitude and knowledge. We value workforce diversity and follow the government's Code of Practices on Employment under the Sex, Disability, Family Status, and Race Discrimination Ordinances (Cap. 480, 487, 527 and 602) in recruitment. Our Directors confirmed that the Group was in full compliance with the Employment Ordinance of Hong Kong during the Reporting Period. In addition, to support the government's initiative for retaining employees due to COVID-19, the Group has joined Employment Support Scheme for both the first and second rounds.

Our Directors confirmed that (i) there were no major disputes and we generally maintain a good relationship with our employees; and (i) we had not faced any material recruitment and retention difficulties in respect of our employees.

B2: HEALTH AND SAFETY

It is our main responsibility to ensure the safety of our employees and students in our facilities. All of our teaching centres were registered or provisionally registered as schools under the Education Ordinance. This means that our teaching facilities have complied with the fire safety requirements under the relevant regulations of the Fire Services Department. Besides, we properly put in place a number of security measures, including CCTV, authorized access, security alarms and fire equipment, etc. to keep our employees and students safe while working and learning in our facilities. Training sessions have been given to our employees on proper routines in keeping facilities safe and special arrangements for emergency situations. Guidelines have been established and communicated to our staff regarding workplace safety, including prevention of sexual harassment.

The Group is also committed to providing a healthy working environment for the employees. We regularly alert our employees to occupational health risks arising from prolonged use of display screen equipment, incorrect sitting posture, wrong lifting position and poor indoor air quality. Accumulation of occupational stress can adversely affect health, interpersonal relationships, work and other aspects in life. We therefore encourage having work-life balance among our employees, and find ways to help employees and teaching staff reduce work stress. In connection with this, we occasionally organized health talks and lunch or dinner gatherings for our employees.

Due to COVID-19, the Group purchased anti-epidemic materials, such as masks, cleaning & disinfecting supplies for our staff members and customers. All the teaching centres are equipped with infrared thermometers and regularly disinfected and the Group also implemented Work-From-Home (WFH) policy to lower the risk of infection. In addition, anti-epidemic guidelines and notification mechanism are all in place.

The Group has upgraded the equipment and provided additional training and safety guidelines to the maintenance and repair staff accordingly. The Group has also issued reminders and scheduled monthly inspection visits to ensure fire exits are kept clear of obstacles in each of its teaching centres. The Directors confirmed that there was no material injury or accident at the Group's facilities and no violation of relevant laws and regulations during the Reporting Period.

In April 2020, the Group received both the "Smiling Enterprise Award" and "Smiling Employer Award" from the Mystery Shopper Service Association, which signifies the Group's efforts in caring for not only its customers but also its employees.

B3: DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING

Training and retaining quality staff are critical to the sustainability and success of our business. Part of our strategy is to offer good development and training opportunities so as to attract and retain good, qualified talents.

We provide specific training to new employees to familiarize them with our working environment and operational procedures. From time to time we seek to help our teaching assistants whom we believe to possess the requisite qualities and attributes in advancing to become tutors. Our Directors believe that our platform and infrastructure offer our teaching assistants the opportunities to develop their teaching careers as tutors within our Group.

In order to maintain consistency in teaching pedagogy, lead tutors, who have their own teaching team, sometimes pair up with the teaching assistants that have accumulated enough experience and exposure to provide courses together. Team resources such as teaching material and promotion will be shared so that the less experienced tutors can also benefit from the lead tutors.

For the top tutors of great potential, the Group provides support in their professional growth and development through personal brand development, cooperation with internationally recognised brands and professional training.

In September 2020, the Group worked with Plan International Hong Kong to set up a child safe guarding policy to build in our organization culture, value and environment which is safe for children from harm in respect of any interaction with our employees. We have provided interactive training to our employees to familiarize them with this policy.

Other employee trainings include workshops on human resources management, and leadership skills were provided for both our senior and junior staff members. Similar internal trainings/seminars will be conducted from time to time in the future.

B4: LABOUR STANDARDS

Our recruitment guidelines follow the labour standards and requirements under the relevant laws and regulations in Hong Kong, including the Employment Ordinance. The Group prohibits the use of child labour and forced labour. All of our tutors providing private supplementary secondary school education services and day school teachers must be eligible to teach under the Education Ordinance and/or Exemption Order.

As part of the recruitment protocol, our Human Resources Department collects personal data, identity documents, and credential certificates of job applicants for reference and verification. At least two rounds of interviews are conducted with the applicants for teaching positions to ensure that they meet the suitability, eligibility, and legal requirements for the job vacancies.

Our Directors confirmed that the Group complied with the laws and regulations in Hong Kong with regard to the prevention of child and forced labour.

B5: SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

During the normal course of our business operation, we procure office supplies and equipment for our teaching centres and the head office. We make sure that our procurements are fair and transparent and avoid suppliers of questionable reputation and product quality. Our office and teaching equipment are primarily purchased from manufacturers with brands known for good performance, reliability, durability and energy efficiency. The products are monitored and measured against the manufacturer's promise and our expectation in these dimensions for replacement purchases in the future. We believe this practice of procurement, though not formalized as a policy, will help minimize the impact on the environment by saving energy and reducing wastes for disposal.

We also purchase licenses for using the copyrights of other organizations in preparing the study and teaching materials. We regularly train our teaching staff on copyright policy and communicate the ethical expectations on the practitioners in the education industry and our Group's corporate culture.

B6: PRODUCT RESPONSIBILITY

We are committed to high standards of teaching, and believe that this commitment has contributed to the success of our business and the development of our brand. Our Group has adopted the following measures to maintain the teaching standards and quality of our teaching team:

- maintaining a record of our students results in the HKDSE Examinations as a key performance indicator of the respective tutors (e.g. with 5/5*); and
- external monitoring of tutors via satisfaction surveys conducted through marketing consultants.

We have set up the Publication Censorship Committee to review and scrutinize the course materials and study notes to ensure that they are up-to-date, accurate, relevant and free from copyright infringement risks.

To increase our student satisfaction and enhance their learning experience, we have been upgrading the IT infrastructure, teaching facilities and equipment in our centres (e.g. our upgraded audio and video servers that support higher-quality video courses and the student postal has also been upgraded to allow online course enrollment and delivery to cope with the increasing demand, especially during the class suspension period.) We have also implemented complaint handling procedures to address customers' complaints in respect of issues relating to our services and operations. The Group has no material customers' complaints during the Reporting Period.

In addition, the Group recognizes the importance of keeping personal data of the students in strict confidence, and thus has engaged an independent Internet security service provider to assist in ensuring the personal information and data be managed with strict care and preventing any unauthorized access and careless leakage of such personal data.

We are not aware of any breach or violation under the laws and regulations related to consumer protection, including the Supply of Services (Implied Terms) Ordinance (Cap. 457) in Hong Kong. Our Directors also confirmed that the Group was in full compliance with the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (Cap. 486) in Hong Kong.

B7: ANTI-CORRUPTION

Integrity is an important part of education to develop and shape an individual's character. We strive to be a good role model to our next generation and hold ourselves to high standards of ethics in our business and personal life. The Group adopts a zero-tolerance policy against improper behaviors or acts, including but not limited to bribery, corruption, collusion, extortion and frauds.

The Employee Handbook has been developed and updated to reflect the spirits and provisions of the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance (Cap. 201) ("POBO") in Hong Kong. Our employees are also regularly informed of the Group's expectations and guidelines on professional and ethical conducts during the normal course of business. Restrictions and internal procedures for reporting and approval are clearly specified regarding the offer and receipt of gifts, entertainment, travel and training to our employees and teaching staff.

We have also put in place internal controls and policies to prevent the occurrence of fraud, theft, bribery, corruption and other misconducts involving employees, customers and other third parties. In the event that employees come across any questionable behaviors, they are encouraged to report to the Group's senior management for further investigation.

As a Hong Kong-listed company, the Group complies with the Corporate Governance Code issued by the Stock Exchange, which requires the audit committee of a listed company to review internal reporting procedures such that its employees feel able to raise concerns about possible improprieties in financial reporting, internal control or other matters. The Group also has proper mechanism in place for fair and independent investigation of these matters, as well as for appropriate follow-up action.

The Group has complied with the POBO throughout the Reporting Period. To the best knowledge of the Directors, the Group did not encounter any incidents involving fraud, bribery, or corruption during the Reporting Period. The Directors are of the view that the Group has proper and adequate internal controls and policies in place.

B8: COMMUNITY INVESTMENT

We not only dedicate ourselves to providing private education services of highest quality, but also carry a social mission of cultivating and advocating the idea of giving back to society among the young generation. It is our desire to create a caring and giving culture in our business operation. Despite the absence of specific company policies in this aspect, the Group actively gives back to the community and strongly encourages our staff and students to do the same in response to the needs and interests of the society.

• Charity and community services

The Group makes genuine efforts to support charitable organizations and raise awareness among students and staff to poor minorities and those in critical needs. While the Group continues to participate and sponsor different charity events, our staff has also volunteered to form community services teams for different good causes. Our Chairman, Ms Leung Ho Ki, June, also serves on the board of Plan International Hong Kong to support the campaigns and activities organized by this international charitable organization.

In November 2019 and February 2020, we helped Yan Chai Hospital's Education Division and The Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups to organize a seminar on HKDSE exam skills. During the Reporting Period, we raised funds for Yan Chai Hospital and Uplift Educational Charity Foundation Limited by setting up donation boxes at our teaching centres.

During the Reporting Period, we supported Plan International Hong Kong as a sponsor for their annual fundraising event "Run for Girls" and as a media sponsor in their "Donate a Pencil" campaign. We also participated as a media sponsor in two charity events ("Orbis World Sight Day" and "Orbis Student Ambassador" campaign) for Orbis. Other community services partners (sponsoring events) included Red Cross (Blood Donation Drive), Hong Kong Ladies Dynamic Association (Community Care in Mid-Autumn Festival) and Eternity Love Foundation.

• Financial assistance to facilitate knowledge sharing

As an educator in society, we believe that knowledge changes fate. Our teaching team have volunteered to work with "Principal Chan Free Tutorial World" since 2013 by providing free workshops and educational services to students of high academic aspirations but lacking financial means. During the Reporting Period, we also sponsored the "Love Talent Scholarship" ("愛 心才藝獎學金") to "Principal Chan Free Tutorial World". Our objective is to set good examples to empower all teaching professionals and our next generation to contribute to the community through voluntary knowledge sharing.

In addition, the Group has established the "Beacon Uprising Fund" since 2012 to provide financial assistance to low-income families or families under the Comprehensive Social Security Assistance for enrolling their children in our tutorial classes. Over 1,000 students have benefited from this financial assistance scheme in the 2019/20 academic year. Our goal is to equip students in financial need with knowledge and learning opportunities so that they can achieve their dreams in the future. In addition, Beacon College together with Uplift Educational Charity Foundation Limited offered the "Upward Mobility Scholarship Programme" ("向上游獎勵計劃") to students who have strived for success despite facing challenges and difficult circumstances.

Scholarships to develop academic talents

The Group also established merit-based scholarships to students studying Chinese and Chinese Literature at The Chinese University of Hong Kong who have demonstrated outstanding academic performance and all-round personal development. These scholarships are intended to help students pursue their academic goals and explore new horizons.

Through our extensive community networks, we have established a close partnership with organizations in different welfare sectors. In 2014 and 2016, the Group was awarded the "Social Capital Builder" by the Labour and Welfare Bureau's Community Investment and Inclusion Fund in recognition of our efforts in actively promoting cross-sectoral social responsibility. During the Reporting Period, our contribution to society earned us the "10 Year Plus Caring Company Logo" awarded by the Hong Kong Council of Social Services.

OPINION

What we have audited

The consolidated financial statements of BExcellent Group Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 54 to 104, which comprise:

- the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 July 2020;
- the consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of changes in equity for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended; and
- the notes to the consolidated financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Our opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 July 2020, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters identified in our audit are summarised as follows:

- Revenue recognition
- Recoverability of other receivables from tutors

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
D

Revenue recognition

Refer to notes 2.19 and 5 to the consolidated financial statements

For the year ended 31 July 2020, the Group recognised revenue of HK$287,036,000, which represented tuition fees from private supplementary secondary school education services, private secondary day school services and ancillary education services and products. The portion of tuition fees received from students but not earned is recorded as contract liabilities.

We focused on this area because of the financial significance to the Group's consolidated financial statements, as well as the large volume of transactions and the risk of overstatement of revenue.

Recoverability of other receivables from tutors

Refer to notes 2.12, 4(a) and 24 to the consolidated financial statements

As at 31 July 2020, the Group's gross other receivables of HK$4,010,000 represents other receivables from tutors which arise from variable expenses incurred by the Group on behalf of the tutors. Management has assessed the recoverability of other receivables from tutors and concluded that loss allowance of HK$1,406,000 was required.

The assessment of recoverability and loss allowance of other receivables from tutors involve significant judgements and estimates as it involves the consideration of a number of factors, including, among others, the past repayment history and outstanding contract period of the individual tutors, current market conditions, as well as forward-looking estimates.

We focused on this area because of the significant judgements and estimates involved.

Our audit procedures in relation to revenue recognition included:

- We understood, evaluated and tested the key controls over revenue recognition.
- We selected tuition fees received on a sample basis and checked to supporting evidence such as student enrollment forms, student payment records, payment receipts, course details and attendance records.
- We selected tuition courses scheduled across the year end date on a sample basis and checked to the student enrollment records and the course schedules; recalculated the proportion of tuition fees recognised in contract liabilities as at year end; and traced the posting of contract liabilities to the general ledger.
- We performed analytical review of revenue by type and enquired the revenue trend by collaboration with management explanations, our industry knowledge and external market data.

Based on our procedures performed, we found the revenue recognised are supportable by the available evidence.

Our audit procedures in relation to the recoverability of other receivables from tutors included:

- We obtained management's assessment on the recoverability of other receivables from tutors, assessed its reasonableness in making the assumptions with reference to the past repayment history and outstanding contract period of the individual tutors, current market conditions, such as the number of student enrollments and revenue sharing arrangements with the individual tutors, as well as forward-looking estimates, such as expected significant changes in the general economic environment.
- We tested the ageing of other receivables from tutors and traced to the suppliers invoices on a sample basis.
- We checked the acknowledgement of expenses paid by the Group on behalf of the respective tutors and the settlement of receivables to the monthly recharge statements to individual tutors on a sample basis.

Based on our procedures, we found that the judgements and assumptions made by management in determining the recoverability of other receivables from tutors are supportable by the available evidence.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THE AUDIT COMMITTEE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Wong Nim Tsz, Elizabeth.

2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This note provides a list of the significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

2.1 Basis of preparation

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA"), and disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622). These consolidated financial statements also include applicable disclosure required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange.

The following new standard is mandatory for the first time for the financial year beginning 1 August 2019 and the impact of the adoption is disclosed in note 2.2.

- HKFRS 16 "Leases"

The following new amendments and interpretation are mandatory for the first time for the financial year beginning 1 August 2019, but have no material effect on the Group's reported results and financial position for the current and prior accounting periods.

- Amendments to HKAS 19 (2011) "Plan Amendment, Curtailment or Settlement"
- Amendments to HKAS 28 (2011) "Long-term interests in Associates and Joint Ventures"
- Amendments to HKFRS 9 (2014) "Prepayment Features with Negative Compensation"
- HK(IFRIC) Interpretation 23 "Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments"
- Amendments to Annual Improvements Project "Annual Improvements 2015-2017 Cycle"

New standards and amendments published by the HKICPA that are not yet effective and have not been early adopted by the Group are as follows:

		Effective for accounting years beginning on or after
Amendments to HKAS 1 (Revised) and HKAS 8	Definition of Material	1 January 2020
Amendments to HKFRS 3 (Revised)	Definition of a Business	1 January 2020
Amendments to HKFRS 16	COVID-19 Related Rent Concessions	1 June 2020
HKFRS 17	Insurance Contracts	1 January 2023
Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture	To be determined

2.1 Basis of preparation (continued)

The Group has already commenced an assessment of the impact of these new or revised standards and amendments, certain of which may be relevant to the Group's operations and may give rise to changes in accounting policies, changes in disclosures and remeasurement of certain items in the consolidated financial statements.

Certain new standards and amendments, which are effective after 31 July 2020, have been published and will be adopted by the Group from their effective dates. The Group is currently assessing the potential impact of these standards and amendments but expects their adoption will not have a significant effect on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost basis, except for the following:

- investment property (see note 17); and
- financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI") (see note 21).

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of judgements about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgements made by management in the application of HKFRSs that have significant effect on the consolidated financial statements and estimates with a significant risk of material adjustment in the next year are discussed in note 4.

2.2 Changes in accounting policies

This note explains the impact of the adoption of HKFRS 16 "Leases" on the consolidated financial statements.

The Group has applied HKFRS 16 for the first time retrospectively from 1 August 2019, as permitted under the specific transitional provisions in the standard. Under this method, the standard is applied retrospectively with the cumulative effect of initial adoption as an adjustment recognised in the opening consolidated statement of financial position on 1 August 2019. The comparative information for prior periods was not restated and continues to be reported under HKAS 17.

(i) Adjustments recognised on adoption of HKFRS 16

On adoption of HKFRS 16, the Group recognised lease liabilities in relation to leases which had previously been classified as "operating leases" under the principles of HKAS 17 "Leases", except for short-term leases and leases of low-valued assets. These liabilities were measured at the present value of the remaining lease payments, discounted using the lessee's incremental borrowing rate as of 1 August 2019. The lessee's weighted average incremental borrowing rate applied to the lease liabilities on 1 August 2019 was at 4%.

In applying HKFRS 16 for the first time, the Group has applied the following practical expedients permitted by the standard:

- Use of a single discount rate to a portfolio of leases with reasonably similar characteristics;
- Use of recognition exemption to leases with a remaining lease term of less than 12 months as at 1 August 2019;
- Use of recognition exemption to leases for which the underlying asset is of low value;
- Exclusion of initial direct costs for the measurement of the right-of-use asset at the date of initial application; and
- Use of hindsight in determining the lease term where the contract contains options to extend or terminate the lease.

(i) Adjustments recognised on adoption of HKFRS 16 (continued)

	2019 HK$'000
Operating lease commitments disclosed as at 31 July 2019 Operating lease commitments regarding leases not yet commenced	83,101 (7,729)
	75,372
Less: discounted using the lessee's incremental borrowing rate at the date of initial application Less: short-term leases recognised on a straight-line basis as expense Less: adjustments as a result of a different treatment of termination options	(2,664) (11,319) (720)
Lease liabilities recognised as 1 August 2019	60,669
Of which are: Current lease liabilities Non-current lease liabilities	33,694 26,975 60,669

The right-of-use assets for properties leases were measured at the amount equal to the lease liabilities, adjusted by the amount of accrued/prepaid lease payment. There were no onerous lease contracts that would have required an adjustment to the right-of use assets at the date of initial application.

The recognised right-of-use assets relate to the following type of assets:

	1 August 2019 HK$'000
Properties leases	59,479

(ii) Effect on adoption of HKFRS 16

As explained above, HKFRS 16 was adopted without restating comparative information. The resulting reclassifications and adjustments arising from the new accounting policies for leases are therefore not reflected in the comparative balances, but are recognised in the opening consolidated statement of financial position on 1 August 2019. The following table shows the adjustments for change in accounting policy recognised for each individual line item. Line items that were not affected by the changes have not been included. As a result, the subtotals and totals disclosed cannot be recalculated from the numbers provided.

(iii) Lessor accounting

The accounting policies applicable to the Group as a lessor are not different from those under HKAS 17.

2.3 Consolidation

(i) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including special purpose entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group (note 2.3(v)).

Intra-group transactions, balances, income and expenses on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Profits and losses resulting from inter-company transactions that are recognised in assets are also eliminated. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

(ii) Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control or joint control. This is generally the case where the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting (note 2.3 (iii)), after initially being recognised at cost.

(iii) Equity method

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in profit or loss, and the Group's share of movements in other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from associates are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

Where the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity-accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity-accounted investments is tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in note 2.9.

(iv) Changes in ownership interests

The Group treats transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control as transactions with equity owners of the Group. A change in ownership interest results in an adjustment between the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount of the adjustment to non-controlling interests and any consideration paid or received is recognised in a separate reserve within equity attributable to owners of the Company.

When the Group ceases to consolidate or equity account for an investment because of a loss of control, joint control or significant influence, any retained interest in the entity is remeasured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable HKFRSs.

If the ownership interest in a joint venture or an associate is reduced but joint control or significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

(v) Business combinations

The Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary is the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree on an acquisition by-acquisition basis, either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the recognised amounts of acquiree's identifiable net assets.

(v) Business combinations (continued)

The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis. Noncontrolling interests in the acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the entity's net assets in the event of liquidation are measured at either fair value or the present ownership interests' proportionate share in the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at their acquisition date fair value, unless another measurement basis is required by HKFRSs.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date through profit or loss.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the Group is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration that is deemed to be an asset or liability is recognised in accordance with HKFRS 9 either in profit or loss or as a change to other comprehensive income. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured, and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

Goodwill is initially measured as the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred and the fair value of non-controlling interest over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If this consideration is lower than the fair value of the net assets of the subsidiary acquired, the difference is recognised in profit or loss.

(vi) Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost also includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving dividends from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the year the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.4 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the executive directors that makes strategic decisions.

2.5 Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollar which is the functional and the presentation currency of the Group's entities.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

All foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income within 'other losses'.

Translation differences on non-monetary financial assets and liabilities such as assets held at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in profit or loss as part of the fair value gain or loss.

2.6 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the assets' carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the asset will flow to the Group and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are expensed in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income during the financial year in which they are incurred.

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost to their residual values over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	5 years
Office and laboratory equipment	5 years
Leasehold improvements	3-5 years
Motor vehicles	5 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (note 2.9).

The gain or loss on disposal of property, plant and equipment is determined by comparing the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset, and is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

2.7 Investment properties

Investment properties which are land and buildings which are held for long-term rental yields and/or for capital appreciation, and which are not occupied by the Group. Investment property is initially measured at cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. Subsequently, they are carried at fair value. Changes in fair values are presented in profit or loss as part of other income/(losses).

2.8 Intangible assets

(a) Goodwill

Goodwill is measured as described in note 2.3(v). Goodwill on acquisitions of subsidiaries is included in intangible assets. Goodwill is not amortised but it is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it might be impaired, and is carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses. Gains and losses on the disposal of an entity include the carrying amount of goodwill relating to the entity sold.

Goodwill is allocated to cash-generating units for the purpose of impairment testing. The allocation is made to those cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the business combination in which the goodwill arose. The units or groups of units are identified at the lowest level at which goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes.

(b) Software

Costs associated with maintaining software programmes are recognised as an expense as incurred. Development costs that are directly attributable to the design and testing of identifiable and unique software products controlled by the Group are recognised as intangible assets when the following criteria are met:

- it is technically feasible to complete the software so that it will be available for use;
- management intends to complete the software and use or sell it;
- there is an ability to use or sell the software;
- it can be demonstrated how the software will generate probable future economic benefits;
- adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the software are available; and
- the expenditure attributable to the software during its development can be reliably measured.

Directly attributable costs that are capitalised as part of the software include employee costs and an appropriate portion of relevant overheads.

Capitalised development costs are recorded as intangible assets and are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less accumulated amortisation (where the estimated useful life is finite) and impairment losses (note 2.9).

Amortisation of intangible assets with finite useful life is charged to profit or loss on a straight-line method over the estimated useful life of 5 to 10 years from the point at which the asset is ready for use.

2.9 Impairment of non-financial assets

Non-financial assets that have an indefinite useful life, which are not subject to depreciation or amortisation, are tested at least annually for impairment and are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. All other non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purpose of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

2.10 Investments and other financial assets

(a) Classification

The Group's management assessed the Group's business models of management, and the contractual cash flow characteristics, of each of the Group's financial instruments, and classified them into the following measurement categories under HKFRS 9 (2014):

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income or through profit or loss); and
- those to be measured at amortised cost.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income. For investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at FVOCI.

(a) Classification (continued)

The Group reclassifies debt instruments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

(b) Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownerships.

(c) Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"), transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVTPL are expensed in the profit or loss.

Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

(d) Subsequent measurement

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments measured at amortised cost as below:

- Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less loss allowance for expected credit losses (note 2.10(e)). Interest income from these financial assets is included in interest income using the effective interest rate method. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in profit or loss and presented in other gains/(losses) together with foreign exchange gains and losses. Impairment losses are presented as separate line item in the profit or loss.
- Liabilities are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in other comprehensive income, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends from such investments continue to be recognised in profit or loss as other income when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at FVTPL are recognised in other income/(losses) in the profit or loss as applicable. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on equity investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

(e) Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses on a forward looking basis the expected credit losses ("ECL") associated with its debt instruments carried at amortised cost. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

At each reporting date, the Group measures the loss allowance of ECL for a financial asset at an amount equal to lifetime ECL if the credit risk on that financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition. If, at the reporting date, the credit risk on a financial asset has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group measures the loss allowance for that financial asset at an amount equal to 12-month ECL.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of the relevant instrument. ECL is the weighted average credit losses with the probability of default as the weight. In contrast, 12-month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within twelve months after the reporting date. Assessments are performed based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future conditions.

For accounts receivables, the Group applies the simplified approach permitted by HKFRS 9, which requires lifetime ECL to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables, see note 23 for further details.

For other financial assets at amortised cost, the loss allowance of ECL for these financial assets will be determined based on whether their credit risk are low at each reporting date, and, if so, by recognising a loss allowance of 12-month ECL. If the financial asset is not subsequently of a low credit risk, the corresponding provision for doubtful debts will be recognised as equal to lifetime ECL.

The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

(i) Significant increase in credit risk

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of an asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly:

- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations; and
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtors.

(ii) Definition of default

For internal credit risk management, the Group considers an event of default occurs when information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group).

(iii) Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- significant financial difficulty of the borrower;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider; or
- it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation.

(e) Impairment of financial assets (continued)

(iv) Write-off policy

Financial assets are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery, such as a debtor failing to engage in a repayment plan with the company. The Group categorises a loan or receivable for write off when the counterparty is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, for example, when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings. Where loans or receivables have been written off, the Group continues to engage in enforcement activity to attempt to recover the receivable due. Where recoveries are made, these are recognised in profit or loss.

2.11 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the consolidated statement of financial position when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future assets and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the company or the counterparty.

2.12 Accounts and other receivables

Accounts receivables are amounts due from customers for services rendered in the ordinary course of business. If collection of accounts and other receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Accounts and other receivables are recognised initially at the amount of consideration that is unconditional unless they contain significant financing components, when they are recognised at fair value. The Group holds accounts and other receivables with the objective to collect the contractual cash flows and therefore measures them subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

See notes 23 and 24 for further information about the Group's accounting for accounts and other receivables and note 2.10(e) for a description of the Group's impairment policies.

2.13 Cash and cash equivalents

In the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand and demand deposits held at call with banks with original maturities of three months or less.

2.14 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.15 Other payables

Other payables are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Other payables are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities.

Other payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.16 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when: the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.17 Borrowings

Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently stated at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in the profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

2.18 Taxation

The tax expense for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

(a) Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the places where the Company and its subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

(b) Deferred income tax

Inside basis differences

Deferred income tax is recognised, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes. However, the deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or a liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting for taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the statement of financial position date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

Outside basis differences

Deferred income tax liabilities are provided on taxable temporary differences arising from investment in a subsidiary, except for deferred income tax liability where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised on deductible temporary differences arising from investment in a subsidiary only to the extent that it is probable the temporary difference will reverse in the future and there is sufficient taxable profit available which the temporary difference can be utilised.

(c) Offsetting

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the deferred income tax assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balances on a net basis.

2.19 Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable for the sales of goods and rendering of services in the ordinary course of the Group's activities. Revenue is recognised when the control of the goods or services is transferred to the customer. Depending on the terms of the contract and the laws that apply to the contract, control of the goods or services may be transferred over time or at a point in time.

The Group recognised revenues on the following bases:

(a) Private supplementary secondary school education services

The Group provides private supplementary secondary school education services for students from Secondary 1 to Secondary 6. Revenue is recognised over contract period in which the courses are rendered as the Group's performance provides all of the benefits received and consumed simultaneously by the customer. A contract liability is recognised for tuition fee received while tuition services are not yet provided at the end of the reporting period.

(b) Private secondary day school services

The Group operates private secondary day schools. Revenue is recognised over contract period in which the courses are rendered as the Group's performance provides all of the benefits received and consumed simultaneously by the customer. A contract liability is recognised for tuition fee received while tuition services are not yet provided at the end of the reporting period.

(c) Ancillary education services and products

The Group offers various ancillary education services and products. Revenue is recognised in which the related services and products are rendered or sold.

2.20 Interest income

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis using the effective interest method.

2.21 Tutor service fees

Tutor service fees are calculated based on certain percentage of revenue from education services, net of certain variable expenses attributable to such tutor.

The tutor service fees are recognised as expense as incurred.

2.22 Employee benefits

The Group operates a single defined contribution pension plan as post-employment scheme.

(a) Pension obligations

A defined contribution plan is a pension plan under which the Group pays fixed contributions into a separate entity. The Group has no legal or constructive obligations to pay further contributions if the fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employees the benefits relating to employee service in the current and prior periods.

For defined contribution plans, the Group pays contributions to publicly or privately administered pension insurance plans on a mandatory, contractual or voluntary basis. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid. The contributions are recognised as employee benefit expense when they are due. Prepaid contributions are recognised as an asset to the extent that a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments is available.

(b) Bonus plans

The Group recognises a liability and an expense for bonuses based on a formula that takes into consideration the profit attributable to the company's employees after certain adjustments. The Group recognises a provision where contractually obliged or where there is a past practice that has created a constructive obligation.

(c) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the statement of financial position date.

Employee entitlements to sick leave and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

2.23 Share-based compensation expenses

The Group operates share option schemes (the "Scheme") under which the Group receives services from its directors, employees and tutors in exchange of equity instruments (options) of the Group to acquire the shares of the Company at specified exercise prices. The fair value of the services received in exchange for the grant of the options to acquire the shares of the Company is recognised as an expense in profit or loss with a corresponding increase in share-based compensation reserve under equity. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options.

The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in profit or loss, with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

When the options are exercised, the Company issues new shares. The proceeds received net of any directly attributable transaction costs are credited to share capital.

2.24 Leases

As explained in note 2.2 above, the Group has changed its accounting policy for leases where the Group is the lessee. The new policy is described below and the impact of the change in note 2.2.

Until the financial year ended 31 July 2019, leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are not transferred to the Group as lessee are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases were charged to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

From 1 August 2019, leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group. Each lease payment is allocated between the liability and the finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period. The right-of-use asset is depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straight-line basis. Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable
- variable lease payments that are based on an index or a rate;
- amounts expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising that option.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be determined, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the lessee would have to be paid to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value in a similar economic environment with similar terms and conditions.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liabilities;
- any lease payments made/accrued at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received; and
- any initial direct costs.

The right-of-use asset is depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straight line basis.

Payments associated with short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less. Low-value assets mainly comprise small items of office equipment.

Extension and termination options are included in a number of leases across the Group. These terms are used to maximise operational flexibility in terms of managing contracts. In determining the lease period, management considers all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to decide on whether to exercise an extension option (or not to exercise a termination option). Extension options (or periods after termination options) are only included in the lease terms if the lease is reasonably certain to be extended (or not terminated).

Lease income from operating leases where the Group is a lessor is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The respective leased assets are included in the consolidated statement of financial position based on their nature.

2.25 Dividends

Dividend distribution to the Company's shareholders is recognised as a liability in the Group's consolidated financial statements in the period in which the dividends are approved by the Company's shareholders or directors, where appropriate.

2.26 Contingent liabilities and contingent assets

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group. It can also be a present obligation arising from past events that is not recognised because it is not probable that outflow of economic resources will be required or the amount of obligation cannot be measured reliably.

A contingent liability, other than that assumed in a business combination, is not recognised but is disclosed in the notes to the financial statements. When a change in the probability of an outflow occurs so that outflow is probable, it will then be recognised as a provision.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain events not wholly within the control of the Group.

A contingent asset is not recognised but is disclosed in the notes to the financial statements when an inflow of economic benefits is probable. When inflow is virtually certain, an asset is recognised.

2.27 Related parties

For the purpose of these financial statements, related party includes a person and entity as defined below:

- (1) A person or a close member of that person's family is related to the company if that person:
 - (i) has control or joint control of the Company;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Company; or
 - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Company or of a parent of the Company.
- (2) An entity is related to the company if any of the following conditions applies:
 - (i) the entity and the Company are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
 - (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
 - (iii) both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.
 - (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.
 - (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Company or an entity related to the Company. If the reporting entity is itself such a plan, the sponsoring employers are also related to the Company.
 - (vi) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (1).
 - (vii) a person identified in (1)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).

2.28 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions. Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised as other income in the profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

3 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

3.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign exchange risk and interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. Management manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

Risk management is carried out under direction by the Boards of Directors. The directors and management identify, evaluate and hedge financial risks in close co-operation with the Group's operating units. The Group has principles for overall risk management, such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk and use of derivative financial instruments.

(a) Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

Entities within the Group are exposed to foreign exchange risk from future commercial transactions and monetary assets and liabilities that are denominated in a currency that is not the entity's functional currency. However, the Group's operations are mainly in Hong Kong. Foreign currency transactions and monetary assets and liabilities that are denominated in a currency that is not the functional currency of the entities within the Group are insignificant to the Group.

(ii) Interest rate risk

Other than bank balances, the Group has no significant interest-bearing assets. The Group's income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates.

The Group's interest rate risk arises primary from borrowings. Borrowings are primarily issued at variable rates which therefore expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk.

At 31 July 2020, if interest rate had been 50 basis points higher/lower with all other variables held constant, the Group's profit for the year would have been approximately HK$566,000 (2019: approximately HK$686,000) higher/lower. The sensitivity analysis has been determined assuming that the change in interest rate had occurred at the end of the reporting period and had been applied to the exposure to interest rate risk for both derivative and non-derivative financial instruments in existence at that date. The 50 basis point (2019: 50 basis point) increase or decrease represents management's assessment of a reasonably possible change in interest rate over the period until the end of next annual reporting period.

(b) Credit risk

The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to financial assets at the reporting date is the carrying amounts of deposits with banks, accounts receivables and deposits and other receivables.

Deposits with banks are mainly placed with high-credit-quality financial institutions. Management considers that the credit risk associated with the deposits with banks and financial institution is low.

Further quantitative disclosures in respect of the Group's exposure to credit risk arising from accounts receivables are disclosed in note 23.

Deposits were mainly rental deposit, utilities and management deposits. For these deposits, the credit quality of these deposits has been assessed with reference to historical information about the counterparties default rates and financial position of the counterparties. Therefore, ECL rate of these deposits is assessed to be minimal.

(b) Credit risk (continued)

The Group measures the ECL of other receivables based on assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates, and those receivables are assessed individually for ECL. The Group uses judgement in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the past repayment history, the current market conditions, the valuation of the pledged collaterals, if any, as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period.

The movement of loss allowances for other receivables are as follows:

	HK$'000
At 1 August 2019 Allowance for impairment	1,406
At 31 July 2020	1,406

Net impairment losses on financial assets recognised in profit or loss

During the year, the following losses were recognised in profit or loss in relation to impaired financial assets:

	2020 HK$′000	2019 HK$'000
Movement in loss allowance for trade receivables (note 23) Reversal of previous impairment losses Movement in loss allowance for other receivables (note 24)	(6) 1,406	47
Net impairment losses on financial assets	1,400	47

The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset, in the consolidated statement of financial position.

(c) Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management includes maintaining sufficient working capital. It is the policy of the Group to regularly monitor current and expected liquidity requirements and to ensure that adequate working capital is available for operating, investing and financing activities.

(c) Liquidity risk (continued)

3.2 Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to enhance returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders.

With regard to maintenance and enhancement of capital structure, the Group considers relevant economic and market conditions and takes necessary measures for the beneficial interest of the Group and its shareholders.

The Group monitors capital on the basis of the Group total debt to equity ratio. The Group aims to maintain a manageable total debt to total equity ratio. Total debt is calculated as borrowing and lease liabilities. At 31 July 2020, the total debt-to-total equity ratio is 35.0% (At 31 July 2019, the total debt-to-total equity ratio is 4.6%.)

3.3 Fair value estimation

The Group's financial instruments carried at fair value as at 31 July 2020 and 2019 by level of the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. Such inputs are categorised into three levels within a fair value hierarchy as follows:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1).
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (level 2).
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (level 3).

The following table presents the Group's financial assets that is measured at fair value and classified as level 3 instruments as at 31 July 2020 and 2019.

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below.

(a) Impairment of other receivables

The loss allowance for other receivables based on assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates. The Group uses judgement in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the past repayment history and outstanding contract period of the individual tutors, the current market conditions, the valuation of the pledged collaterals, if any, as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period. Management reassesses other receivables regularly and provision could change significantly as a result of changes in the financial position and payment status of the counterparties and in response to the local economic conditions.

(b) Assessment of goodwill impairment

The Group tests annually whether goodwill have suffered any impairment and when there is indication that they may be impaired, in accordance with the accounting policy stated in note 2.8(a). The recoverable amounts of cash-generating units have been determined based on value-in-use calculations which require the use of assumptions. These calculations require the use of estimates. The key assumptions were disclosed in note 18.

(c) Recognition of share-based compensation expenses

The Group has used the Black Scholes Model and Binomial Model to determine the total fair value of the options granted, which is to be expensed over the vesting period. Significant estimates on assumptions, such as the underlying equity value, risk-free interest rate, expected volatility, dividend yield, exercise multiple and post-vesting exit rate, are required to be made by the Group in applying the models.

(d) Income taxes

The Group is principally subject to income taxes in Hong Kong. Significant judgement is required in determining the provision for income taxes. There are transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Group recognises liabilities for anticipated tax audit issues based on estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the current and deferred income tax assets and liabilities in the year in which such determination is made.

(e) Estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets (other than goodwill)

Management determines the estimated lives and related depreciation and amortisation charges for its property, plant and equipment and intangible assets (other than goodwill). Management will revise the depreciation and amortisation charges where useful lives are different from those previously estimated, or it will write-off or write-down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned.

5 REVENUE AND SEGMENT INFORMATION

The executive Directors are the Group's chief operating decision-makers ("CODM"). Management has determined the operating segments based on the information reviewed by the CODM for the purposes of allocating resources and assessing performance.

The CODM consider the business by nature of business activities and assess the performance of private supplementary secondary school education services, private secondary day school services and ancillary education services and products. Ancillary education services and products mainly represent education-related income including interview preparation, language and supplementary primary school education and tutorial services under "Diverse Learning Club", "Beacon Childhood", "BeConfident", "Glocal Education" and "Mathgic" brands, IELTS, general interests and foreign language courses under "Beacon BExcellent" brand, overseas study consultation services under "GES" brand, online retail business sunder "Beacon Living" brand, mock examination services, VIP self-study services, online course scheduling and management services and other education services. The CODM consider that the Group operates and is managed as a single operating segment.

In the following table, revenue recognised during the year is disaggregated by major products/service lines and timing of revenue recognition.

As permitted under HKFRS 15, the transaction price allocated to these unsatisfied contracts is not disclosed.

On 29 July 2020, the Board of Directors of the Company resolved that the Company grant to a Strategic Development Consultant (the "Consultant") share options under 2018 Share Option Scheme, subject to acceptance by the Consultant and satisfaction of the certain granting conditions, to subscribe for and be allotted 20,000,000 Shares at an exercise price of HK$0.60 per share. The grant became unconditional upon the approval by the shareholders of the Company in the extraordinary general meeting and the listing approval by the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong on 16 October 2020. Given the legal grant date of these share options is closed to 31 July 2020, the total expense recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income for share options is minimal.

(Loss)/profit attributable to owners of the Company (HK$'000) Weighted average number of shares in issue (thousand shares)	(19,230) 500,000	11,928 500,000

The tenancy is expiring in August 2021 upon the tenant's exercise of the option of renewal. The Group intends to use the commercial property as its teaching center after the expiration of the tenancy.
- (ii) The Group measures its investment property at fair value. The fair value of the Group's investment property as at 31 July 2020 was determined based on management's assessment with reference to the recent market transaction price.

The Group's investment property carried at fair value of HK$19,300,000 are valued by fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (level 3). The Group's policy is to recognise transfers into and transfers out of fair value hierarchy levels as of the date of the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfer. There were no transfers between Levels 1, 2 and 3 during the year.

The valuation method used by the Group to measure the fair value of the investment property is direct comparison method. It is based on comparing the property to be valued directly with other comparable properties, which have recently transacted. However, given the heterogeneous nature of real estate properties, appropriate adjustments are usually required to allow for any qualitative differences that may affect the price likely to be achieved by the property under consideration.

The significant unobservable input used is the unit price, which is HK$8,446 (2019: HK$10,218) per square feet.

- (iii) As at 31 July 2020, the Group's investment property with carrying value of approximately HK$19,300,000 (2019: HK$23,347,000) were pledged to secure bank facilities of the Group as set out in note 30 to the consolidated financial statements.

These tax losses have no expiry dates but the management considered not to recognise as those companies with losses carried forward are not expected to generate future taxable income.

23 ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLES

	2020 HK$′000	2019 HK$'000
Accounts receivables Less: Allowance for impairment	1,604	1,680 (187)
Accounts receivables – net	1,604	1,493

There is no credit period granted as the income from private supplementary secondary school education services and private secondary day school services are normally received in advance through settlement in cash, PayPal or credit cards. As at 31 July 2020 and 2019, the ageing analysis of the accounts receivables based on invoice date were as follows:

	2020 HK$′000	2019 HK$'000
1 - 30 days	1,497	773
31 - 60 days	24	34
Over 60 days	83	873
	1,604	1,680

The Group applies the HKFRS 9 simplified approach to measuring expected credit losses which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance for all accounts receivables. To measure the expected credit losses, accounts receivables have been grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics and the days past due.

The ECL rates are based on the past repayment history and the historical credit losses experience. The historical loss rates are adjusted to reflect current and forward-looking information on macroeconomic factors affecting the ability of the customers to settle the receivables. The ECL provided on a collective basis is insignificant as there has been no history of material default from accounts receivables.

For accounts receivables relating to accounts with objective evidence that the Group is unable to contact some of the students to recover the debts, they are assessed individually for impairment allowance. Accordingly, no individual provision were made as at 31 July 2020 (2019: HK$47,000).

The movements in the loss allowance during the year are as follows:

	2020 HK$′000	2019 HK$'000
At beginning of the year	187	140
Increase in loss allowance recognised in profit or loss (note 3.1(b))	-	47
Receivables written off during the year as uncollectible	(181)	—
Unused amount reversed (note 3.1(b))	(6)	_
At end of the year		187

The maximum exposures of the Group to credit risk as at 31 July 2020 and 2019 are the carrying value of accounts receivables mentioned above.
